

Dear students,

First of all, I have to tell you that I am really disappointed. Only 9 (!) students uploaded their solutions on Moodle last week. This is an unacceptable situation.

However, there were many of you who took the assignments seriously. Well done, guys! I know that this topic is not the easiest.

I would strongly advise everyone of you to look at the contents (and hope this is hint enough!).

This week, you will have to complete two tasks:

1) Political system of the USA

~ 70 Min

Last week, you read one of the texts that deal with the political system of the USA, which means you are the expert of this particular text (either I, II, III or IV – can all be found in the folder “political system”).

This week, you should become familiar with the other texts as well. For this purpose, contact your group members (you will find your groups down below) and complete the overview sheet “ABL_Stammgruppe” with the help of each of them (as everyone of you read another text). Every single person should upload their completed “ABL_Stammgruppe” with all the information on Moodle.

Important: If you cannot reach one of your group members due to illness or other reasons, let me know via Teams. In this case, you and your group members should read the missing text together and add the information yourself.

Also important: If there should be any questions regarding specific content and difficulties understanding the texts in general, contact me anytime. 😊

2. ~ 15 Min

Watch the video “How to become president” of the United States and complete the following tasks:

1. State the requirements to become President of the U.S.
2. Explain the three steps to become President.

- caucuses – meeting at which local members of a political party register their preference for the candidate
- ballot – system of voting secretly
- inauguration – the beginning of the Presidency
